

A youth magazine The Young World has called on readers to express their opinions on why learning foreign languages is important.

You have decided to send in an essay on the topic.

In your essay write about

- the positive aspects of learning a foreign language.
- how a foreign language has helped you in a certain situation.
- what kind of difficulties you have had when speaking to people from other countries.
- how to motivate people to learn foreign languages

Write about 300 words and give your essay a title!

Room for corrections

Room for corrections