

These days most young people spend a lot of time on social network sites. Do you think this is a good thing or not? Write an essay about the good and bad sides of social media websites!

In your essay you should

- introduce the subject
- present arguments in favour of and against using social media sites
- write about your own habits concerning social networking

Write an essay of about 300 words !

Room for corrections

