

Complete the sentences with a prepositional phrase from the box.

IN ADDITION TO - IN ADVANCE - IN BRIEF - IN CHARGE OF - IN COMMON - IN THE COURSE OF - IN DANGER - IN DEBT - IN DEMAND - IN DEPTH - IN EFFECT - IN FAVOR OF - IN FLAMES - IN THE LONG RUN - IN ORDER OF - IN NO TIME

1. We can't go into a lot of detail now, but the issue will be covered _____ during the next term.
2. _____ the 1950s and 60s industrial output in Europe rose significantly.
3. Curfews have been _____ around the country for over two weeks.
4. My sister was deeply _____ and couldn't finance her monthly payments.
5. The policemen were _____ securing the crime scene and not letting anyone through.
6. In times of crises gold is _____ as a form of personal savings.
7. The old building across the street went up _____ after the bomb had exploded.
8. Tickets for the performance must all be booked _____.
9. The car is expensive to buy but _____ you will save a lot of money through better mileage.
10. The children are lined up _____ height.
11. _____ tests, the government will also provide all elderly citizens with the appropriate medicine.
12. The real estate agent promised us that our house would be sold _____ at all.
13. The two sides are not negotiating any more, so the peace talks are _____ of collapsing.
14. A recent survey shows that most citizens are _____ building a sports centre near the motorway.
15. The two teams have a lot _____. For example, they are both extremely well organized.
16. As we do not have time for a full report, here are the results _____.

KEY

1. We can't go into a lot of detail now, but the issue will be covered in depth during the next term.
2. In the course of the 1950s and 60s industrial output in Europe rose significantly.
3. Curfews have been in effect around the country for over two weeks.
4. My sister was deeply in debt and couldn't finance her monthly payments.
5. The policemen were in charge of securing the crime scene and not letting anyone through.
6. In times of crises gold is in demand as a form of personal savings.
7. The old building across the street went up in flames after the bomb had exploded.
8. Tickets for the performance must all be booked in advance.
9. The car is expensive to buy but in the long run you will save a lot of money through better mileage.
10. The children are lined up in order of height.
11. In addition to tests, the government will also provide all elderly citizens with the appropriate medicine.
12. The real estate agent promised us that our house would be sold in no time at all.
13. The two sides are not negotiating any more, so the peace talks are in danger of collapsing.
14. A recent survey shows that most citizens are in favour of building a sports centre near the motorway.
15. The two teams have a lot in common. For example, they are both extremely well organized.
16. As we do not have time for a full report, here are the results in brief.