

A youth magazine is planning an essay competition on happiness. You decide to take part in the competition. It wants you to write about the following statement:

"The only way to happiness is by helping other people."

In your essay you should

- analyse the reasons for helping other people.
- give examples
- express your opinion on why it can make you happy

Write an essay of about 250 - 300 words and give your essay a title.

Room for corrections

