

Complete these sentences with an opposite of the verb in BOLD. Use the words from the box. Make sure that you use the correct form of each verb. The first one has been done for you.

ABSENT - BORROW - BRIGHT - ~~CATCH~~ - DEFEND - DEPART - DENY - FAIL - FILL - FORBID - GUILTY - MINOR - PERMANENT - PUBLIC - PUNISH - RECEIVE - SAVE - SET - VOLUNTARY - WEAK

1. Although we missed our train to the airport, we still managed to catch our plane.
2. We didn't spend much money. In fact, we managed to _____ a lot of it.
3. The train arrives at the station at 4 and it _____ 10 minutes later.
4. After he had emptied the bottle, he _____ it with water.
5. "Can you lend me € 10?" - "No way! - The last time you _____ money from me, you never gave it back!"
6. The principal doesn't allow smoking at school. In fact, he _____ everything that is bad for our health.
7. Did he confess to stealing your money? - No, he _____ everything.
8. In summer, the sun rises at about 5 o'clock and doesn't _____ until after nine in the evening.
9. There are some things you can do in private that you should never do in _____.
10. He didn't pass his exam. In fact, he _____ with a very low score.
11. Our teacher rewarded all the good students but decided to _____ all the bad ones.
12. Although I sent the letter on Monday, she didn't _____ it until Friday.
13. At the end of the long, dim tunnel we could see a _____ shining light.
14. If you are attacked on the street, there are several ways you can _____ yourself.
15. It was only a temporary job until I could find something more _____.
16. The thief said he was innocent, but the judge decided he was _____.
17. Half of the students were present, but the other half were _____.
18. Attendance at class is compulsory, but the afternoon social programmes are _____.
19. There have been a few major accidents on this road, but fortunately the injuries have been _____.
20. I prefer strong to _____ coffee.

KEY

1. Although we missed our train to the airport, we still managed to catch our plane.
2. We didn't spend much money. In fact, we managed to save a lot of it.
3. The train arrives at the station at 4 and it departs 10 minutes later.
4. After he had emptied the bottle, he filled it with water.
5. "Can you lend me € 10?" - "No way! - The last time you borrowed money from me, you never gave it back!"
6. The principal doesn't allow smoking at school. In fact, he forbids everything that is bad for our health.
7. Did he confess to stealing your money? - No, he denied everything.
8. In summer, the sun rises at about 5 o'clock and doesn't set until after nine in the evening.
9. There are some things you can do in private that you should never do in public.
10. He didn't pass his exam. In fact, he failed with a very low score.
11. Our teacher rewarded all the good students but decided to punish all the bad ones.
12. Although I sent the letter on Monday, she didn't receive it until Friday.
13. At the end of the long, dim tunnel we could see a bright shining light.
14. If you are attacked on the street, there are several ways you can defend yourself.
15. It was only a temporary job until I could find something more permanent.
16. The thief said he was innocent, but the judge decided he was guilty.
17. Half of the students were present, but the other half were absent.
18. Attendance at class is compulsory, but the afternoon social programmes are voluntary.
19. There have been a few major accidents on this road, but fortunately the injuries have been minor.
20. I prefer strong to weak coffee.