

Complete the sentences below, using a phrasal verb from the box in its correct form.

BASED ON - BRING UP - COUNT ON - DEAL WITH - GO OVER - LEAVE OUT - MAKE OUT
- MOVE IN - PULL OFF - PUT TOGETHER - RUN INTO - TURN DOWN

1. It was very interesting to see how the construction workers _____ the bridge _____ .
2. In today's world it's difficult to _____ children so that they can get something out of life.
3. Can we _____ the arrangements once again to make sure that everything will work out fine.
4. My parents have bought a new house recently and we're planning to _____ soon.
5. There was a lot of fog so I couldn't _____ the licence plate of the car.
6. The manager offered her an excellent job, but she simply _____ it _____ .
7. The headmaster doesn't want to _____ naughty students all the time.
8. He _____ some important information at the interview because he didn't want his new boss to know everything about him.
9. The film you're about to see is _____ a true story .
10. You're my best friend. I can always _____ you if something goes wrong.
11. She finally succeeded in _____ the deal even though it was difficult to get all the parties to agree.
12. I _____ an old friend a few days ago. We hadn't seen each other since college.

KEY

1. It was very interesting to see how the construction workers put the bridge together .
2. In today's world it's difficult to bring up children so that they can get something out of life.
3. Can we go over the arrangements once again to make sure that everything will work out fine.
4. My parents have bought a new house recently and we're planning to move in soon.
5. There was a lot of fog so I couldn't make out the licence plate of the car.
6. The manager offered her an excellent job, but she simply turned it down .
7. The headmaster doesn't want to deal with naughty students all the time.
8. He left out some important information at the interview because he didn't want his new boss to know everything about him.
9. The film you're about to see is based on a true story .
10. You're my best friend. I can always count on you if something goes wrong.
11. She finally succeeded in pulling off the deal even though it was difficult to get all the parties to agree.
12. I ran into an old friend a few days ago. We hadn't seen each other since college.