

Complete the sentences below, using a phrasal verb from the box in its correct form.

BLOW OUT - BRING UP - COME FORWARD - DO WITHOUT - GET ACROSS - GET OVER
- GO THROUGH - HOLD ON - LET OFF - MAKE UP - PUSH FOR - RUN DOWN - SEND FOR - SIT OUT - TAKE ABACK - TURN OUT

1. My lawyer has _____ all the documents I gave him, but he can't find the right one.
2. The trade unions are _____ a rise in salary, but the employers don't want to give it to them.
3. Thousands of people _____ to see the royal family, who were in the country for the first time.
4. It was the first time he got caught so the teacher _____ him _____ with a warning.
5. We were _____ when Jerry said he was getting married. Nobody had really expected it.
6. I can't _____ coffee in the morning. I need at least 2 cups to get going.
7. When I was walking across the street a car sped by and almost _____ me _____.
8. It took her a few months to _____ her husband's death.
9. Could you please _____? - Mr Jenkins is on the other line.
10. The couple finally _____ after they had been quarrelling about irrelevant things.
11. A week after the incident the neighbour _____ with some new information.
12. I _____ the manager because I thought the sales assistant gave me wrong information.
13. When he got his birthday cake, he _____ all the candles on it.
14. She finally _____ most of what she was saying _____ to the audience.
15. I don't like the performance either, but I guess we'll just have to _____ it _____.
16. His grandparents _____ him _____ after his biological mother had left him.

KEY

1. My lawyer has gone through all the documents I gave him, but he can't find the right one.
2. The trade unions are pushing for a rise in salary, but the employers don't want to give it to them.
3. Thousands of people turned out to see the royal family, who were in the country for the first time.
4. It was the first time he got caught so the teacher let him off with a warning.
5. We were taken aback when Jerry said he was getting married. Nobody had really expected it.
6. I can't do without coffee in the morning. I need at least 2 cups to get going.
7. When I was walking across the street a car sped by and almost ran me down.
8. It took her a few months to get over her husband's death.
9. Could you please hold on? – Mr Jenkins is on the other line.
10. The couple finally made up after they had been quarrelling about irrelevant things.
11. A week after the incident the neighbour came forward with some new information.
12. I sent for the manager because I thought the sales assistant gave me wrong information.
13. When he got his birthday cake, he blew out all the candles on it.
14. She finally got most of what she was saying across to the audience.
15. I don't like the performance either, but I guess we'll just have to sit it out.
16. His grandparents brought him up after his biological mother had left him.