

Complete the sentences below, using a phrasal verb from the box in its correct form.

BRUSH UP - DRESS UP - DROP OUT OF - EAT UP - END IN - FACE UP TO - FALL BEHIND
- FINISH OFF - GET AWAY WITH - HAND DOWN - MAKE OFF WITH - PICK UP - READ UP ON - ROLL UP - THUMB THROUGH - TURN IN

1. The meeting _____ a fight between the two office managers.
2. My friend and I _____ as Batman and Robin at the party.
3. I had to _____ English literature for the course next semester and I didn't know very much about it.
4. Mom told her son he would have to _____ his vegetables before he could leave the dinner table.
5. The burglars _____ some valuable jewellery after they had broken into the house.
6. I probably _____ the flu while I was on holiday in Asia.
7. The young man _____ university only a year after he had started courses.
8. We _____ the luxurious meal with chocolate cake and a cappuccino.
9. She had to _____ the fact that she was seriously injured and couldn't take part in any competition this season.
10. Let's _____ our sleeves and start working in order to get the project done in time.
11. It was the third time the student _____ cheating. We'll report her next time.
12. I _____ the magazine while I was in the waiting room.
13. You should _____ your Spanish if you want to go to South America next month.
14. This recipe has been _____ to various members of our family for ages.
15. After the robbery the man realized that he had no place to go and _____ himself _____.
16. She hadn't gone to school for over a month and _____ in the main subjects.

KEY

1. The meeting ended in a fight between the two office managers.
2. My friend and I dressed up as Batman and Robin at the party.
3. I had to read up on English literature for the course next semester and I didn't know very much about it.
4. Mom told her son he would have to eat up his vegetables before he could leave the dinner table.
5. The burglars made off with some valuable jewellery after they had broken into the house.
6. I probably picked up the flu while I was on holiday in Asia.
7. The young man dropped out of university only a year after he had started courses.
8. We finished off the luxurious meal with chocolate cake and a cappuccino.
9. She had to face up to the fact that she was seriously injured and couldn't take part in any competition this season.
10. Let's roll up our sleeves and start working in order to get the project done in time.
11. It was the third time the student got away with cheating. We'll report her next time.
12. I thumbed through the magazine while I was in the waiting room.
13. You should brush up your Spanish if you want to go to South America next month.
14. This recipe has been handed down to various members of our family for ages.
15. After the robbery the man realized that he had no place to go and turned himself in.
16. She hadn't gone to school for over a month and fell behind in the main subjects.