

Complete the sentences below, using a phrasal verb from the box in its correct form.

BREAK OFF - BRING IN - BURST IN - CALL FOR - COME OUT - DROP OFF - FILL IN - GET UP TO - GIVE UP - GO WITH - HANG ON - KEEP BACK - LOOK INTO - MAKE OUT - PICK ON - PUT OUT

1. You shouldn't leave the children alone for so long or they'll _____ something bad.
2. Could you _____ a minute while I get something to write?
3. It took the fire fighters almost an hour to _____ the fire.
4. Being a primary school teacher _____ a lot of nerves and patience.
5. All the employees had to _____ a form that was given to them by the personnel manager.
6. Although he answered most of my questions, I had the feeling he was _____ something.
7. The older boys always _____ the younger ones at the school playground. It's so disgusting.
8. I'll _____ you _____ at the station on my way to work. It's not a problem.
9. My doctor advised me to _____ smoking.
10. The bright blue scarf _____ your new dress perfectly.
11. The investigator told me he would _____ the matter.
12. The sun has just _____ so I expect that the rest of the afternoon will be quite warm.
13. The prosecutor _____ an expert on DNA analysis.
14. John and Marjorie have decided to _____ after being together for five years.
15. The man _____ the room without knocking and told us about the accident that had just happened.
16. It's difficult to _____ the licence plate number of the car over there. It's so far away.

KEY

1. You shouldn't leave the children alone for so long or they'll get up to something bad.
2. Could you hang on a minute while I get something to write?
3. It took the fire fighters almost an hour to put out the fire.
4. Being a primary school teacher calls for a lot of nerves and patience.
5. All the employees had to fill in a form that was given to them by the personnel manager.
6. Although he answered most of my questions, I had the feeling he was keeping back something.
7. The older boys always pick on the younger ones at the school playground. It's so disgusting.
8. I'll drop you off at the station on my way to work. It's not a problem.
9. My doctor advised me to give up smoking.
10. The bright blue scarf goes with your new dress perfectly.
11. The investigator told me he would look into the matter.
12. The sun has just come out so I expect that the rest of the afternoon will be quite warm.
13. The prosecutor brought in an expert on DNA analysis.
14. John and Marjorie have decided to break off after being together for five years.
15. The man burst into the room without knocking and told us about the accident that had just happened.
16. It's difficult to make out the licence plate number of the car over there. It's so far away.