

Use the word in brackets to form a new word that fits into each blank.

1. Happiness and misery are two values that are hardly _____. (MEASURE)
2. City authorities invested in better street _____ in order to reduce crime. (LIGHT)
3. _____, the car got out of control and crashed into the tree. (FORTUNE)
4. People who are _____ often get benefits from the state. (EMPLOY)
5. My _____ told me that my rent was due next week. (LAND)
6. The _____ came to the house and fixed the faulty wires. (ELECTRIC)
7. It was not my _____ to embarrass him in front of everyone. (INTEND)
8. Technicians are trying to keep the reactor from _____. (HEAT).
9. Michael is _____ on his father and always has to ask him for financial support. (DEPEND)
10. The law proved to be _____. Nobody cared about it. (EFFECT)
11. When a rescue team arrived at the site they found that a few passengers were still _____ (LIVE).
12. We have had a few _____ lately, but on the whole, we are getting along fine. (AGREE)
13. She came from a _____ middle-class family. (RESPECT)
14. He is _____ to be a teacher. He simply can't manage a class. (FIT)
15. She surprised her coaches with a _____ performance. Everything she did was perfect (FAULT).
16. The test was _____ easy. I have done more difficult ones. (COMPARE)
17. The _____ died at once when Sandy came in. (LAUGH)
18. People no longer have confidence in our _____ system. (JUST)
19. All natural minerals contain _____. (PURE)
20. The bottles are designed to be _____ up to ten times. (USE)

KEY

1. Happiness and misery are two values that are hardly measurable. (MEASURE)
2. City authorities invested in better street lighting in order to reduce crime. (LIGHT)
3. Unfortunately, the car got out of control and crashed into the tree. (FORTUNE)
4. People who are unemployed often get benefits from the state. (EMPLOY)
5. My landlord/landlady told me that my rent was due next week. (LAND)
6. The electrician came to the house and fixed the faulty wires. (ELECTRIC)
7. It was not my intention to embarrass him in front of everyone. (INTEND)
8. Technicians are trying to keep the reactor from overheating (HEAT).
9. Michael is dependent on his father and always has to ask him for financial support. (DEPEND)
10. The law proved to be ineffective. Nobody cared about it. (EFFECT)
11. When a rescue team arrived at the site they found that a few passengers were still alive (LIVE).
12. We have had a few disagreements lately, but on the whole, we are getting along fine. (AGREE)
13. She came from a respectable middle-class family. (RESPECT)
14. He is unfit to be a teacher. He simply can't manage a class. (FIT)
15. She surprised her coaches with a faultless performance. Everything she did was perfect (FAULT).
16. The test was comparatively easy. I have done more difficult ones. (COMPARE)
17. The laughter died at once when Sandy came in. (LAUGH)
18. People no longer have confidence in our justice/ judicial system. (JUST)
19. All natural minerals contain impurities. (PURE)
20. The bottles are designed to be reused up to ten times. (USE)